

17th Annual
CHILDREN'S
CLEAN WATER FESTIVAL
Where Youth Are Making Waves!

Tuesday April 27, 2010
7 AM - 3 PM

PORTLAND COMMUNITY COLLEGE (SYLVANIA)
12000 SW 49th Avenue, Portland, OR
(Barbur Blvd exit off I-5)

The Children's Clean Water Festival is a fun-filled educational event that brings over 1,000 local 4th and 5th grade students together to learn all about water and how it relates to our world.

We need more than 70 volunteers to help the festival run smoothly. There's sure to be a role that's right for you -- whether you'd like to guide a class around campus, help with set-up, or assist the many exhibitors and presenters! No experience is needed, and training will be provided.

To volunteer, simply:

Register online at www.cleanwaterfestival.org (see "Volunteers")

CALL FOR VOLUNTEERS

17th Annual
CLEAN WATER FESTIVAL
Where Youth Are Making Waves!

Select the volunteer role you prefer:

Classroom Guide

Time Commitment: 7:45 am-2 pm

You will be assigned a 4th- or 5th-grade class and guide them around campus to their scheduled activities (presentations, stage shows, and exhibits). Teachers and chaperones remain with your class throughout the day. Very FUN, especially if you like to learn and spend time with kids. No experience needed, but you should be comfortable with the idea of guiding a class around and pointing out where things are. We'll show you everything on the morning of the festival!

General Festival Helper

Time Commitment: 7 am-3 pm (some flexibility – note your availability below)

A great choice for those who prefer to be “behind-the-scenes”. You’ll be helping with any of the following: set up, signs, bus arrival, lunch distribution, directions, etc. No experience needed.
